- (26): The Member is responsible for returning the Boat in the same condition as when the boat left the Location.
- (27) The Member is responsible for:
- (a) Using their best endeavours to keep the Boat in good condition and free of damage throughout the Session; and
- (b) Without prejudice and subject to the Insurance cover available, to the extent that the Member operates the Boat in breach of these Rules and Regulations the Member is responsible for any loss or damage to the Boat and accessory equipment from the time that the Boat session commences at the Location until the Boat is returned to the Location, including the time of its proper check in to NBC save to the extent that the loss or damage is otherwise recoverable under the Insurance, in which case the Member's liability shall be limited up to a maximum of £2,000 (being £1000 in respect of the balance of the excess payable under the Insurance and the £1000 damage deposit).
- (28): At no time shall the member allow anyone other than a Member to operate the Boat. The Member is liable for any uninsured damage and losses. The Member shall not admit liability for any third party damage.

- (29): If alcohol / drugs on the part of the Member or any passenger on the Boat are contributing factors in an accident a Member is fully responsible for all costs, claims and damages arising out of the accident to the extent to which the Insurance in place does not cover the accident.
- (30): Any damage that occurs while a Boat is in a Member's possession will be noted and charged to the Member at check-in. Some damage, particularly damage to the engine (i.e. caused by entangling the prop in rope or fishing line, running the engine at high rpm after a problem occurs, etc.), may not be noticed at the time of check-in. If damage is discovered after check-in, but in any event within 7 days of check-in, and NBC deems the Member to be responsible, the Member will be billed for the full* cost incurred by NBC in repairing the Boat to the same condition as originally delivered to a Member. At NBC's sole discretion, a member may be denied boat usage until payment is received for any damage to a Boat. NBC may require the member to attend a meeting to discuss the damage, and NBC, at its sole discretion, may take any action deemed necessary, including suspension or termination of Membership.

 Maximum Damage liability to member where the damage is covered by insurance is £2,000 which includes £1000 damage deposit.*

- (31): Towing. NBC shall have in place at all times a policy of marine breakdown and recovery cover with Seastart for use by the Member. In the case of a Boat ceasing to operate NBC will be responsible for reasonable towing charges subject to the Member first using all reasonable endeavours to contact NBC for approval. If the breakdown arises as a result of the Member's recklessness, incompetence or fault (i.e. soft grounding vs. hard or low-tide grounding) the Member will be solely responsible for towing costs.
- (32) Injury and damage to property. A Member recognizes that the operation of a Boat is a specialized activity that requires training and experience and has both obvious and non-obvious dangers associated with it. A Member acknowledges that many such dangers produce risk of injury to a Member, a Member's passengers, and the public in general regardless of the training and experience of the operator of the Boat and regardless of the proper maintenance and condition of the Boat. Accordingly, (without prejudice to and subject to the Insurance in place which shall be available) a Member accepts responsibility at all times for the safety of all persons and property on board the Boat, and all persons who may come in contact with the Boat, including a Member, a Member's passengers and the public in general whilst the Member is operating (piloting) the Boat.
- (33): A Member acknowledges that NBC's insurance coverage is only while the Member is on board and in charge and control of the boats and does not apply if any non-member is operating a NBC insured Boat during an accident. Without prejudice to, and subject to the Insurance in place and to the extent to which it is not an insured event and the Member has been notified in advance that it has been excluded, a Member agrees to release, indemnify, defend and hold NBC, its officers, directors, employees and agents harmless from and against all claims, loss, damage, expense (including reasonable attorney's fees and costs and expenses of litigation) for injury or loss including bodily injury, death, property damage or other loss of any kind or nature whether known or unknown, foreseen or unforeseen, patent or latent arising from or relating to the use or operation of a Boat in breach of the Rules and Regulations and in this regard a Member further understands and acknowledges that (without prejudice to, and subject to the Insurance in place and to the extent to which it is not an insured event and that the Member has been notified in advance that it has been excluded) NBC is not responsible for death, injury or property loss or damages resulting from or arising out of:
- (a): The acts or omissions of any third parties or,
- (b): A Member's operation of the Boat and related water sport activities, including without limitation, swimming, diving and snorkelling and the Member shall hold BCTL harmless and shall indemnify NBC against any claims by any persons arising from such water sport activities.
- (34): Status. A member's rights are for the prepaid use of NBC Boats only, and nothing contained in this Agreement is intended or shall be construed as creating any rights of ownership, legal or equitable, in any of the boats or in BCTL, its stock or assets.
- (35): Compliance with laws and ordinances. A Member shall comply with all applicable governmental laws, ordinances, orders, and regulations now in force or which may hereafter be in force insofar as they pertain to the use, operation and utilization of boats. A Member shall also comply with all requirements of any insurance companies providing Insurance for NBC and the rules and regulations of any marina or other docking facility in which NBC Boats are located.

- (36): Limitations on warranties and liability. NBC makes no representations or warranties, express or implied, except those included in this Agreement or on the Web Site from time to time. A Member acknowledges that all representations or warranties as to the qualities, capacity, or other attributes of a Boat, the use of which will be furnished to a Member pursuant to this Agreement and any such representations or warranties which may be made or upon which a Member may rely are exclusively those of the manufacturers of said equipment. Without prejudice and subject to the availability of the comprehensive policy of Insurance in place, to the extent possible, NBC shall not be responsible or liable at any time for loss or damage to personal property brought by a Member, or any of a Member's family, guests, invitees, or third party aboard NBC boats used by a Member or be responsible or liable to a Member for any defect, latent, or other defects of any type or nature in any Boat or any equipment, appliances, or apparatus utilized in connection with such Boat, nor be responsible or liable for any injury or damage caused by or resulting from any defect, act, or omission in the construction or maintenance of any Boat, or any equipment, fixtures, appliances, or apparatus utilized in connection with such Boat.
- (37): Force Majeure. NBC shall be excused from performance, or any delays in performance hereunder, due to fire, flood, earthquakes, hurricane, acts of God, unavailability of materials, equipment or fuel, war, declaration of hostilities, revolt, civil strife, altercation or commotion, strike, labour disputes, epidemic, pandemic, lack of or failure of fork-lift or transportation facilities, mechanical breakdowns, any law, order, proclamation, regulation or ordinance of any government or subdivision thereof, or for any other cause whether similar or dissimilar to those enumerated, beyond the reasonable control of NBC.
- (38): Arbitration. If any dispute arises out of the interpretation of these Rules and Regulations it shall be referred to an arbitrator (to be appointed by the NBC and the Member jointly or, in default of agreement, as appointed by the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators) and the arbitration shall be carried out in accordance with the provisions of the Arbitration Act 1996.

INSURANCE:

- (1): BCTL maintains the Insurance on an annual basis under which BCTL and NBC is the insured.
- (2): A summary of the risks covered and exclusions is published on the Web Site and will be updated and notified to the Member whenever there is any change to them.
- (3): Members fully benefit from the terms of the Insurance, subject to the terms of the Insurance.
- (4): The Insurance will cover the use and operation of the Boat by the Member personally and any liability that the Member may have to the Member's guests and liability to any third parties, when the Boat is being used from the time that the Boat session commences at the Location until the Boat is returned to the Location, including the time of its proper check in to BCTL.
- (5): Should an incident occur the Member will:
- (a): immediately make a full written report of it to NBC; and
 - (b): Use best endeavours to obtain a full written report from all passengers on the Boat; and
 - (c): During the progress of a claim being processed by NBC provide all such additional information, statements and cooperated by giving evidence in any Court proceedings that may be pursued.
- (6): Members acknowledge that they have no right to pursue claims under the Insurance and that it is for NBC as the insured to process all claims.
- (7) NBC agrees to fully pursue any claim and further agrees to take all steps that may be necessary to assist the Member, arising out of an insured risk / event on behalf of the Member.
- (8): To the extent that any loss or damage is caused by the Member operating the Boat in breach of these Rules and Regulations and on the basis that NBC has fully complied with its obligations under the terms of the Insurance in place covering the use of the Boat by the Member, Members agree to indemnify NBC against all claims for loss, damage or injury to boats or persons in the event that such claims are excluded from cover under the Insurance.

DEFAULT:

Any of the following shall constitute an event of default ("Default") with respect to this Agreement:

- (1) Any failure by a Member to pay when due the full amount of any deferred payment under obligation, debt instalment, or other charge hereunder; or
- (2) Failure of a Member to abide by and adhere to the Rules and Regulations of NBC or of the marina where BCT's Boats are docked, as now in effect or as hereafter amended; or
- (3) The failure or inability of the Member, as demonstrated to NBC, in its sole judgment, to operate the Boat, 1) in a safe, alert, and cautious manner, 2) exercising due caution to protect the Boat and engine from damage, and 3) within any operational requirements or limitations published by NBC and brought to the attention of the Member, or
- (4) A Members' use of a Boat in any manner that poses a nuisance upon the seas, or a substantial risk of personal injury, death and / or property damage. No waiver or indulgence by NBC with respect to any given default shall constitute a waiver of NBC's rights with respect to any subsequent default or breach.

REMEDIES ON DEFAULT:

- (1) Upon the occurrence of any event of Default by the member, NBC may (subject to the exclusion referred to in the paragraph immediately below) terminate this Agreement and end all Membership Rights and NBC shall be entitled to retain as liquidated damages, and not as a penalty, all sums previously paid to NBC by a Member pursuant to this Agreement.
- (2) In the event of termination of this Agreement, all provisions as to Insurance and to insured events occurring prior to termination shall remain in full force and effect unless or until such time as any claims under the Insurance concerning the Member have been concluded.

TERMINATION OF MEMBERSHIP

BCTL may prohibit a Member from using or operating a Boat or may terminate the Membership, if in the sole discretion of NBC, any of the following occur:

- (1): The Member has not paid the monthly fee or any other sum due from the Member to NBC
- (2): Misuse of alcohol or drug use by the Member or his guests
- (3): A Member has used language or has behaved in a manner which is unbecoming to the NBC other members or their guests, NBC employees or is consistently discourteous in demeanour
- (4): Frequent boating mishaps, reckless or dangerous operation or use of a Boat
- (5): Failure to adhere to the Rules and Regulations
- (6): A Member engages in a business or activity injurious to NBC
- (7): Breach of the Insurance policy terms and conditions for the use of a Boat

If NBC opts to terminate the Membership for one of the reasons set out above, upon termination of Membership the, Damage Deposit and Monthly Fees shall belong to NBC and not be refunded to the Member.

NBC may terminate a membership at it's sole discretion and without providing a reason.
